Agreement for Dial-Up Access

The undersigned individual, in consideration for use of the CedarNet dial-up service, including e-mail, and/or personal web publishing and the efforts of the CedarNet Board to develop and maintain the system, agrees to the following:

1. The use of the CedarNet dial-up system is a privilege that may be revoked by the CedarNet Board at any time for abusive conduct (including but not limited to: conducting illegal activities; placing unlawful information on the system; using obscene, abusive or otherwise objectionable language in either public or private message; or violating any part of this Agreement). The CedarNet board will be the sole arbiter of what constitutes abusive conduct.
2. CedarNet does not warrant nor represent that CedarNet will meet any specific performance requirements or that it will be error free or uninterrupted. CedarNet shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, incidental, or consequential damages (including lost data, information, or profits) sustained or incurred in connection with the use of, operation of, or inability to use CedarNet.
3. The undersigned individual will abide by all the rules and regulations of CedarNet as may be promulgated from time to time by CedarNet.
4. The undersigned user and authorizing parent or guardian, where applicable for users under the age of 18, agree to indemnify CedarNet and/or the CedarNet Board for any loss suffered to the user by reason of improper use of CedarNet.
5. Any use of CedarNet for commercial purposes without the expressed written permission of the CedarNet Board is prohibited.
6. The undersigned user will not allow any other person to use her/his login (user ID) and/or password.
7. No refunds will be issued in whole or in part for any amount of service if the request is made beyond the initial 30 calendar days of account activation as determined by the signature/reception date, whichever is later, on the enrollment form.
